

DAILY HERALD.

TUESDAY MORNING, NOVEMBER 7.

CITY ITEMS.

Amusements This Evening.

METROPOLITAN THEATRE.—Miss Blanche De Bar. The Unusual Match. To Paris and Back for Five Pounds. STATE MUSEUM.—Kinder's Block, East Washington street. Open day and night.

The great instructors.—Time and events.

THE GREATER GOOD.—Mind your own business.

A SOCIAL ANATOMY.—The common gossip.

UNWRITTEN MUSIC.—The music of the spheres.

The march to which all keep step.—The march of time.

The excellent that softens the asperities of life.—A cheerful disposition.

The General Assembly will meet here one week from today, pursuant to the Governor's proclamation.

The County Commissioners, will probably hold a special session on next Saturday. The first Monday in December is the time of their next regular meeting.

The weather was as warm, bright and genial as an Italian atmosphere, yesterday. Who would not feel thankful and cheerful under these kindly dispensations?

Mr. J. J. Bingham, late Editor of the Sentinel, who has been ill for some time is slowly convalescing. His numerous friends hope for the speedy restoration of his health.

PERSONAL.—Thomas Wood, Warden of the Northern Indiana Prison, A. C. Lanier, Esq., of Madison, Indiana, James P. Wilson, Esq., of Crawfordsville, and Hon. R. W. Thompson, of Terre Haute, were in the city yesterday, and stopping at the Bates House.

The new type and other material for the Herald have arrived, and we are now engaged in resetting the advertisements. Business men proposing to advertise, will please prepare their advertisements and hand them in by the time we are ready for the promised enlargement, which will be in a few days.

By the claim Agents of the city we are informed that their business still continues good, despite the prevailing opinion that the termination of the war would put a termination to their vocation. A vast amount of business in the filing of claims growing out of the war will command the attention of the Auditor's and Pension Department for some time to come.

The local of the Journal seems to think that a man is "unfortunate" whose name is unlike his own. There is nothing like self-complacency, and here is a case in point. He thinks, also, that we evince a disposition to "travel on our name." Admitting this to be so for the sake of the argument, it proves nothing but the one fact, i. e., that we are not ashamed of our name.

The United States District Court commences its November session to-day. Hon. David Davis, Associate Justice of the Supreme Court of the United States for the Circuit of Indiana, and Hon. David McDonald, Judge of the United States District Court for the District of Indiana, constitute the Bench. Hon. John Hanna, of Greencastle, is the District Attorney. A heavy criminal docket and a small civil docket are said to be awaiting disposition.

The said Base Ball match, that was to come off on Thursday night, is to come off on this week Thursday night, the Military and Great Western Base Ball Club. The club expect a large attendance from the citizens of the city of Indianapolis, it will no doubt be a splendid play, and we must see it.

It is to be played on the old grounds of the Great Western Base Ball Club. It is a home and home match.

DESTRUCTIVE FIRE.—A fire broke out last evening in a lumber yard and drying house on Ohio street, near the canal, and notwithstanding the exertions of the Fire Department, the entire stock of lumber was destroyed. We are unable to state the extent of the loss with any degree of certainty, but it was no doubt severe. The fire originated from the drying apparatus of the lumber house. The name of the proprietor was said to be a Mr. Carlisle.

CORRECTION.—An error on the part of the compositor in yesterday's paper makes us appear as making an unfriendly criticism on our worthy Mayor in respect to his character for "temperance." We wish to make the amende honorable and desire to be distinctly understood as leaving the highest opinion of the Law Officer of the city for his acknowledged probity and integrity as a citizen and as a functionary of the city. "Mayor" Caven and "Mayor" Loomis are exact antipodes as we understand them. Our readers will please note the correction.

The courteous Mr. Loraine Rogers, agent of Mr. Lawrence P. Barrett was in the city and called on us yesterday. He represents Mr. Barrett as meeting with the most perfect success wherever he has appeared this season. Mr. Barrett is a great favorite with the people of Indianapolis, as accomplished in his profession, with a repertoire that addresses itself to the commendation of all lovers of the legitimate drama. No one that has attended the theatre here ever heard from him a line or a word that could offend even the most fastidious. We congratulate our citizens upon his promised early arrival here. He is now playing at "De Bar's" Opera House at St. Louis, and on Friday last was the recipient of a complimentary benefit of the hand of the best citizens of St. Louis. The list was headed by the name of Major General Sherman.

SERIOUS ACCIDENT.—Last evening about 5 1/2 o'clock the vicinity of the Union Depot was the theater of another of those melancholy accidents that are becoming so frequent of late, and are often so mournful in their nature. At the time above stated, as a man named Louis Freiler was proceeding to his boarding-house—the "Golden Gate"—and while crossing the railway track of the Lafayette Road, in endeavoring to avoid the train on that road, he was struck by the engine of a train on the Terre Haute Road that was broken near the knee, and his left foot was also badly mangled. He was carried to the office of Dr. Bryan, near by, and his wounds were dressed by the doctor. His injuries are of a very serious nature, though, by the aid of care and attention, he will probably recover. He is now lying at the "Golden Gate," and weeks must elapse before he can again resume his wonted avocation, and will, perhaps, be a permanent cripple.

A rumor prevailed yesterday about the finding under the floor of a house in this city, of the remains of a man who had disappeared several weeks ago. A vigorous effort to trace the rumor to its source showed that it was not authentic. An interesting item was thus spoiled. We are always anxious for items, but rejoice at the untruth of the report.

Dr. William Clinton Thompson, the member of the City Council from the Third Ward, in the course of his remarks at the Council meeting last night, pronounced the Indianapolis Journal a "highly immoral sheet," and made free to state that he would seem to take not only a lively interest in the sanitary condition of the city, but is equally concerned about its morals also. He denounced the Journal because of its pernicious advertisements, as a paper "unfit to come into any man's family," and wanted such things "spewed out." The Doctor seemed to be perfectly regardless of consequences, and we may expect to see him read out of the party by the Journal. Nova Verona.

LAW REPORT.

Circuit Court—Criminal Docket.—Nov. 6, 1865.—State vs. Albert Ferrell, grand larceny. Evidence and argument concluded—under advisement.

State vs. J. K. Farrell, selling liquor to a minor. Defendant pleaded guilty, and was fined $5.

State vs. P. B. Farrell, selling liquor to persons already intoxicated. Defendant pleaded guilty, and was fined $5.

The State vs. Adolphus Marcus, grand larceny. In progress.

This is a case the preliminary proceedings in which were reported some time ago. The defendant was the confidential clerk in a clothing house in this city, and as is frequently the case, he was faithless to his trust. For some time previous to his arrest, it seems that he had been systematically and clandestinely abstracting articles from the store of his employers. Temptation was too great for him.

Common Pleas Court—Civil Docket.—McCord et al. vs. Bond. Still in progress.

AMUSEMENTS.

Metropolitan Theatre.—A full house was in attendance on last night, to welcome Miss Blanche De Bar as a new candidate for the patronage of Indianapolis audiences. She made a most favorable impression and we predict that there will be a general disposition to see her again by those who had the pleasure of hearing her on last evening. There are but few new comedies than Oliver Goldsmith's, "The School for Quakers." Miss De Bar's "Kate Hardcastle" was rendered in excellent style and stands her as a comedienne who must occupy a high place in the public estimation. The lady is possessed of a very agreeable and attractive presence, an expressive countenance, and great mobility of expression.

She seems to be as much at home as a vocalist as an actress, and evidently brings to the stage a superior education. Indeed, the latter is insured by the mere fact that she is a daughter of "Ben De Bar," the proprietor of "De Bar's Opera House," at St. Louis, a veteran actor and manager. She was frequently and warmly endorsed, and at the close was called before the curtain. The other characters were generally well rendered. To-night Miss De Bar appears in the "Equal Match," and "To Paris and Back for Five Pounds."

La Rue's Great War Show, which exhibits at Masonic Hall, on Wednesday, Thursday and Friday evenings of the present week, has received the highest encomiums of the press and public wherever it has appeared. We copy the following from the St. Louis Democrat, of a recent issue:

"La Rue's Exhibition, the Great War Show, was well patronized on Tuesday night, and gave great satisfaction to the spectators. The life-like appearance of the various figures of men and horses, and the representation of steamships, iron-clads, and other water craft employed in the different harbors in defending or attacking forts and cities, displayed great mechanism and the most wonderful ingenuity. The flashing of powder, the booming of cannon and other incidents of the war between the contending parties, were almost as natural as the reality. His personations of different characters displayed a versatility we have seldom seen equalled, and excited peals of laughter on account of their inimitable wit and drollery. No one should miss witnessing this exhibition, for his personations alone are more than worth the price of admission."

MAYOR'S COURT.—Monday always brings with it an increase of the misdemeanor list, because it is the yield of two days, i. e. Sunday and Monday.—Sunday brings no commutation of the policeman's tribulations, nor does it operate a temporary suspension of crime. Hence the following list:

CARRYING CONCEALED WEAPONS.—William Dale was indicted enough to be caught while carrying concealed weapons, and stood to the law which had been outraged in his person by the payment of a fine of $10.40.

ASSAULT AND BATTERY.—Under this head Frank Baker was arraigned. The result of the hearing showed that he had battered his victim to the extent of $26.70. "Frank" took a "stay."

INTOXICATION.—William Masserman went to jail for fifteen days; William Potts ten days; Lewis Frick fifteen days; and Thomas French ten days. John Jacobs ten days; and all because they would not observe the injunction. "Touch not, taste not, handle not."

WANDERING PROSTITUTES.—Lou Turner would not be decent, but would degrade the name of woman. A policeman found her and brought her before the Court. The City Attorney prosecuted her and the Mayor fined her $14.70. Low paid $5.00, and her wailing running dry, she asked leave to serve out the remainder. Leave was granted and the lady went to jail for thirty days.

Kitty White was also tried under this head and found guilty. Her portmanteau was found to be as empty of cash as the prosecutor was of mercy. Kitty therefore went to jail for thirty days.

ASSOCIATING WITH PROSTITUTES.—Duncan Gibbs and John Lynn were both shown to be guilty of this offense and were fined $16.40. Duncan paid in full; John went to jail for thirty days.

CITY COUNCIL PROCEEDINGS.—COUNCIL CHAMBER, INDIANAPOLIS, November 6, 1865.

Council met last evening in regular session. Present, His Honor, the Mayor, John A. Caven, in the chair, and Councilmen, Allen, Brown, Box, Coffey, Emerson, Glazier, Jameson, Kappes, Lefever, Loomis and McArthur.

Mr. Loomis presented a petition from the citizens on Fletcher avenue, asking that an ordinance be passed ordering said avenue to be graded and graveled, between Noble and Cedar streets. Referred to the Board.

Mr. Brown submitted a report granting the petition of the Trustees of the Public Schools, relative to the vacating certain alleys in out-lot No. 16.

Also, the petition of R. King, asking that a signman be appointed to stand at the crossing of the Bellefontaine Railroad at New Jersey street crossing. Granted.

First and final estimates were allowed Messrs. Surber & Catterton, for grading and graveled Georgia street, between Pennsylvania and West streets; and one to Cowan & Hanway for grading and graveled New York street and sidewalks between Noble and Winston streets.

An ordinance was adopted for the payment of said work.

ORDINANCES ON THIRD READING.—An ordinance amending section 1st of the Hack Ordinance was put on its third reading.

Some discussion was provoked and the Council expressed itself as decidedly in favor of putting an end to the congregating of hacks on the public streets.

Atres.—Boss, Brown, Coburn, Emerson, Grosvenor, Kappes, Lefever and Thompson.—Eight.

Non.—Allen, Coffey, Glazier, Jameson, Loomis, McArthur, and Schmidt.—Seven.

RESOLUTIONS.—Mr. Loomis submitted one asking the Council to instruct the Street Commissioner to fill up the rut on Virginia avenue to the corporation line.

Dr. Jameson moved to lay on the table, and demanded the yeas and nays.

The Mayor declared the motion out of order, and ordered the Clerk to call the roll on the passage of the resolution.

The resolution was lost by a vote of six to nine.

Mr. Grosvenor submitted a resolution, asking that a Special Committee be appointed to examine whether Pogue's Run, west of Illinois street, cannot be straightened in such a way as will permit Merrill street from being destroyed. The resolution was adopted.

The Mayor appointed the following gentlemen as the Committee: Messrs. Grosvenor, Lefever and Brown.

MOTIONS.—By Mr. McArthur: That the City Attorney be ordered to prepare an ordinance for the purpose of cleaning the city of all filth, in order to meet the cholera epidemic which threatens the country.

REPORT OF OFFICERS.—The City Clerk submitted his monthly report as follows: For the collection of street assessments by the precepts as follows:

John Stump against John Carlisle, for $850.00

Michael Seis against John B. Stump, for $50.00

Total, $900.00

The Sexton reported the number of interments for the month of October to be one hundred and eighteen.

The Mayor, reported the amount of fines collected by him during the month of October at $706.73.

Reports of the officers were all adopted.

The Mayor suggested that a penalty be embraced in the ordinance in order that the ordinance would become effective.

The Council deliberated on the subject some time and recognized the urgent necessity of taking immediate steps toward putting the City in a good sanitary condition.

Mr. Brown submitted an amendment as follows: That the Mayor appoint a special Committee whose duty shall be to superintend the cleaning of the streets, alleys and gutters of the City, and that they report some general plan by which the streets can be once cleaned hereafter and that said Committee be directed to consult freely with the Board of Health on the subject.

Dr. Thompson called the attention of the Council to an article in the Journal of Monday morning, in which the editor had said that Indianapolis was the filthiest city in the country, and he pronounced the article as a tissue of falsehoods, and the Journal as a "highly immoral sheet and unfit to be taken in the family of any respectable citizen." He called on the proprietors of that most moral sheet to "spew out" the afore said obnoxious editorial, and to cease its misrepresentations of the condition of the sanitary affairs of the city. The Journal fattened off the patronage given it by the City Government, and in return the Council received nothing but villification. He objected to the "Golden Pill advertisements," and characterized them as indecent and having a tendency to increase a species of unnameable crime. These misrepresentations of the Journal were calculated to prejudice strangers against the city, and thereby injure its interests. He was in favor of putting an end to further misrepresentation, and wound up by pronouncing Indianapolis the cleanest city in the United States.

The Mayor appointed a special Committee, consisting of Messrs. Brown, Kappes and McArthur, as provided in the resolution.

ORDINANCES.—Mr. Brown introduced an ordinance changing the order of business of the Council, which was read, under a suspension of the rules, a third time, and adopted.

A petition was read from Mr. Armstrong, asking the improving of St. Joseph street. Referred to the Board of Improvements.

The resignation of James Wood, City Engineer, was presented, and laid over for consideration, one week.

Mr. Loomis asked that Mr. Stump, the contractor on Circle street, be permitted to be heard, by his attorney in his (Stump's) defense, in common justice to the contractor. Granted.

Mr. Kimball, the attorney, appeared and reviewed the matter in controversy at some length. After the conclusion of Mr. K's remarks, the Mayor called up the ordinance providing for the payment of the estimate.

Mr. Loomis demanded the roll on the question to be called.

Atres.—Allen, Box, Coffey, Emerson, Glazier, Lefever, Loomis, McArthur and Schmidt.

Non.—Brown, Grosvenor and Jameson.

The ordinance was declared adopted.

Dr. Jameson presented a protest against the action of the Council in accepting the contract. Signed by Jameson, Kappes, Brown and Coburn.

On motion, Council adjourned.

BUSINESS NOTICES.—See Dr. Wm. Thomson's advertisement on the fourth page of to-day's paper. Jan 25-1f.

Lost.—The person who picked up my cane yesterday in the street will receive my thanks and be suitably rewarded by leaving the same at my office on Washington street, opposite the Court House. Dan's McClure.

Whist the city improves generally, Massachusetts avenue keeps ahead, as we notice the "Capital Drive Store," at the corner of Vermont street, has been greatly enlarged, and is now one of our first-class drug stores in every respect. 30-1f.

"We live for what we can eat and wear" is a popular philosophy. Heikman, the Merchant Tailor, No. 27 North Illinois street, is the fashionable resort in this city for the external man—and fits up mankind with all the decorations that make man's appearance attractive. 4-6

We would respectfully solicit our friends and patrons to call and look at their accounts, and, as far as convenient, settle the same. T. E. Holbrook, Esq., will be at the office during business hours, and is authorized to receipt in our name. JAMESON & FUNKHOUSER. 4-12-1f

Thomas Redmon, at No. 130 South Illinois street, is, perhaps, unsurpassed by any in the City, for the excellence of his Pure Wines and Liquors, foreign and domestic. Everything sold at this house is emphatically what it is represented. A Billiard Hall with the finest tables in the City, is attached. Will the public take notice. 6-6

William Snyder & Co., No. 21 South Meridian street, wholesale and retail dealers in Stoves, Kettles, and other household goods. Fresh Fish received daily. It is a fact not to be disputed by any sensible person that Lexington, Gads & Co., have the handsomest stock and styles of Ladies', Misses' and Children's Fashion Boots in this City. It is also a well-known fact that they have hand-some, better and better-fitting French Calf Boots, for Gent's than are offered by any other house in this City. 6-30

Merchants Tailors.—Schultz & Poltz.—Competition always fosters excellence, and in such cases the most energetic and skillful in their branch of the business bear away the palm. Messrs. Schultz & Poltz, at No. 31, North Pennsylvania street, have long enjoyed the pre-eminence in the city as Merchant Tailors. On nearly all the well dressed men of this city—and their number is legion—you can recognize Louis Schultz's sign manual, i. e., an unexceptionable fit, the latest style and the best material in the market. 6-3
